

Andrette Lampkin exceeds her duties as a Program and Volunteer Administrator by leading transformation. Within 8 Cents in a Jar, Andrette plays a vital role in enhancing the volunteer experience and connecting program management with the commitment of 8 Cents volunteers, known as Coin Changers, to youth financial education.

Andrette's dedication to education and program involvement extends across various initiatives, from after-school programs to community workshops in Central Florida's nonprofit sector, focusing on inclusive learning and program engagement to benefit all students. She has made significant contributions to esteemed organizations like the Foundation for Foster Children, Orange County Public Schools, YMCA of Central Florida, and Orange County Government as a Youth Program Coordinator. She influences students and inspires and supports volunteers, igniting their passion for service. Her unwavering commitment emphasizes the importance of education in nurturing critical thinking, creativity, and a lifelong love for learning.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Andrette is a mother and advocate for disabilities. She finds joy in the beach, creative pursuits, and all things Biscoff.
