

COLLETTE SCHULTZ

OPERATIONS MANAGER

8 CENTS IN A JAR

Collette Schultz, a seasoned accounting professional, leverages her expertise in finance, nonprofit work, and project management as the Operations Manager at 8 Cents in a Jar. In her role, she oversees finance, technology, operations, data, and reporting to ensure compliance and surpass expectations.

With a background in school district management and successful entrepreneurship in virtual assistance for 12 years, Collette brings a wealth of knowledge and a strong passion for operational excellence. Holding an associate's degree in accounting and accumulating three decades of experience, she has worked across education, small business accounting, and non-profits, providing a varied and insightful perspective on supporting thriving organizations.

Motivated by passion and purpose, Collette not only supports her family but also helps others achieve their goals. Her dedication at 8 Cents in a Jar reflects her commitment to making a meaningful impact.
